How Would Jesus Impact Your Wedding Party?

TGIF Today God Is First

Volume 2 by Os Hillman

*"Dear woman, why do you involve me?"
Jesus replied. "My time has not yet come." His mother said to the servants,
"Do whatever he tells you"
-John 2:4 - 5*

In Bible times, a Jewish wedding was a special celebration that could last seven days. It was a time of joy and celebration on behalf of the couple. Wine was an integral part of these weddings. Jesus, the disciples, and Mary, his mother, were invited guests to such a wedding. At some point during the celebration there was no more wine. Mary became concerned and turned to Jesus to solve the problem. But Jesus had not yet performed any miracles. However, His mother must have known that he was capable of doing so. Perhaps she had been waiting for the time for him to begin performing miracles.

sizes of private parties, trade show and special events. He creates Instant Photos within 30 seconds, including greenscreen and photo booths. Billy has been in operation with a good attitude since 1991. His best key to success is to never give up! Billy's favorite scripture is James 4:2 "You have not because you ask not". That was one of the hardest changes for him to make when he became a christian 21 years ago...asking!

Billy has six children, Joshua, Jeremiah, Heather, Jeffrey, Allie and Elijah. His favorite pastime is serving kids. He has served with the elementary kids at Covenant Church for 20 years. One day he hopes to take his kids to Disney World. He is a Single Dads Life Team Leader. Billy and his children worship at Covenant Church in Carrollton.

Mike's Corner

INNOCENCE IS PRICELESS

One Sunday morning, the pastor noticed little Alex standing in the foyer of the church staring up at a large plaque. It was covered with names and small American flags mounted on either side of it. The six-year old had been staring at the plaque for some time, so the pastor walked up, stood beside the little boy, and said quietly, 'Good morning Alex.' 'Good morning Pastor,' he replied, still focused on the plaque. 'Pastor, what is this?' The pastor said, 'Well son, it's a memorial to all the young men and women who died in the service.'

Soberly, they just stood together, staring at the large plaque. Finally, little Alex's voice, barely audible and trembling with fear asked,

When she proposed to Jesus that He solve this problem, he answered, "My time has not yet come." You can almost hear that motherly Jewish tone... "Yes, it has son. Please handle this emergency for me." Then she instructs the servants to do whatever Jesus tells them to do, seeming to know that He was going to solve the problem, but not really knowing how. Jesus proceeds to respond to his mother's request.

Now, my western mind imagines what the headline would be the day after this wedding, in the politically incorrect Cana's Daily News: "Son of Mary turns water into alcoholic drink - 180 gallons!" What a way to begin a ministry! Thankfully, there was no negative press.

Now the quality of the wine that Jesus made was exceptional and would have cost a fortune. Imagine, 180 gallons of fine wine! As in most miracles Jesus performed, He involved the faith and obedience of others. The servants were an important part of the miracle - as they did just what Jesus told them to do.

Have you ever asked Jesus to get involved in an unusual problem? No matter what problem you have, Jesus invites you to seek Him as the solution to your problem.
