Business as Usual

TGIF Today God Is First
Volume 1 by Os Hillman

"And she gave birth to her firstborn, a son. She wrapped Him in cloths and placed Him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn." - Luke 2:7

Imagine if the God of the universe decided to visit planet earth as a new baby and you were given the opportunity to host His first night-in your hotel! Think of the future promotional possibilities... "God stayed here His first night!" You could sell tickets to see the room where He was born. What an opportunity to make history as a small-business owner!

God had need of a business owner's establishment one night 2,000 years ago. But there was no room for God in this business that night. There was no room for the unexpected miracle; no awareness of what was taking place in the heavenlies, no water". Kelly says the key to his success is that you don't have to treat all people equally, just fairly.

Kelly is married to wife Terri. They have 8 children, six boys and two girls. They live in Forney, and if you visit them you will discover they have a horse, a donkey, a cat and three farm dogs. Are you thinking a very full house? His hobbies include drinking coffee and watching Fox News. One activity he is involved in is protecting the unborn. Kelly enjoys vacationing near the beach.

His favorite scripture is John 3:16 - "For God so loved the world he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in Him shall not perish but have eternal life". He and his family worship at Covenant Church in Carrollton.

Every day God has need of some man or woman's job. He wants to demonstrate miracles in their work. But there is no room in their work for Jesus. He is not asked to participate.

That night God slept in a stable. That night a business opportunity from Heaven was missed. It was business as usual.

May we all have spiritual eyes and ears to know when our Master needs what He has entrusted to us for His purposes.
