Working Wholeheartedly

TGIF Today God Is First

Volume 1 by Os Hillman
Sunday, December 26 2010

"In everything that he undertook in the service of God's temple and in obedience to the law and the commands, he sought his God and worked wholeheartedly. And so he prospered." - 2 Chronicles 31:21

Hezekiah was a godly king. He was also a very talented businessman and builder. He was responsible for many noteworthy projects that are described in detail in the Old Testament. We discover from the passage above that King Hezekiah had two major attributes that contributed to his success and prosperity: He sought God, and he worked wholeheartedly upholding God's laws.

Godly success involves a partnership between you and God. Success in God's economy means achieving the purpose for which God made you. That purpose can never be services industry for 33 years. His motto is "My objective is help every client make good decisions and wise choices about their money and their financial affairs". He attributes his success to 1) being blessed and protected by Our Father 2) being a trusted, effective and relevant steward of client capital, and 3) being kind, encouraging and genuine in developing relationships and in my approach to client service. Isn't that exactly what you want from someone you trust with your money? Marvin's favorite scripture is Matthew 11:28-30 "Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy and my burden is light."

On a personal note, Marvin is married to Phyllis and they have a daughter Sara. His hobbies include golf, participating in church-related plays and skits and reading/researching various business topics. Other activities include volunteering, participating on Charitable Boards, Coppell City Council, Covenant Life Teams (Married Couples, Drama, History). His favorite vacation spot is Pebble Beach or anywhere else there is a golf course. Marvin and Phyllis are members at Covenant Church Colleyville.

discovered without seeking Him with a whole heart. You may achieve great things without seeking God, but you will never achieve the things God set out for you to achieve without seeking Him. Unless you seek Him, you may find yourself one day climbing to the top of the ladder only to find it leaning against the wrong wall.

What does it mean to seek God? It means creating time to sit before His throne in quiet places. It means reading His Word in order to know Him more intimately. It means developing an ear to hear His voice so that we know when to turn to the right or to the left. God desires to know you.

Are you willing to take the time to know Him? If so, you can be sure He will guide you into those things that will bring success to every aspect of your life.
